

REAL SIMPLE

life/home/body/soul

Maximizing your space:

solutions for every room

How to make any decision
faster, easier, and better

8 recipes that cook themselves

Click and wear: the best wardrobe websites

When to throw things out

MARCH 2004
$3.95US $4.95CAN
www.realsimple.com
AOL keyword: real simple

Products for the Way We Clean Now

Hoover SpinSweep, $99

PROBLEM: While sweeping the driveway or the garage, you just end up spreading dirt and debris around.

SOLUTION: The new manual Hoover SpinSweep. Designed for outdoor use, it works like your grandmother's carpet sweeper and has an easily emptied collection bin.

TO BUY: www.hoover.com for store locations.

Method wipes, $3.50

PROBLEM: You love the convenience of cleaning with wipes, but you worry about their effect on the environment.

SOLUTION: Biodegradable, flushable wipes from Method. The container is handsome enough to leave out on a counter.

TO BUY: Available at Target or www.drugstore.com.

Vileda Fresh Comfort rubber gloves, $2

PROBLEM: You hate that sweaty feeling you get when you wear rubber gloves.

SOLUTION: Fresh Comfort foam-lined rubber gloves. They're more absorbent than traditional cotton-lined ones, so they reduce damp-hand syndrome.

TO BUY: Available at supermarkets and drugstores.

Scrub 'n Flush Toilet Brush, $6

PROBLEM: A germ-y toilet brush festering in the corner.

SOLUTION: Scrub 'n Flush, a detergent-filled biodegradable paper brush head that you flush after one use.

TO BUY: Available at Wal-Mart and supermarkets. The $6 starter kit includes the handle and four brush capsules; eight-pack refills are $3.

